Subject: Special Education American Recovery and Reinvestment Act (ARRA)

Board Brief

The American Recovery and Reinvestment Act includes the largest single increase in Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA) support ever provided by the federal government. These funds will allow districts to improve services to help students with disabilities achieve academic success.

The Santa Barbara School Districts will receive funding of approximately $3,383,684 ($1,141,316 – Elementary and $2,242,368 – High). These funds will be distributed through SELPA incrementally until June 30, 2010.
