

SPEECH/LANGUAGE THERAPISTS

QUALIFICATIONS

Must possess a valid California clinical or rehabilitative services credential authorizing instruction in speech and language therapy or an out-of-state credential authorizing instruction in speech and language therapy. Alternate certification can be the following: a master's degree in communication disorders, passed CBEST, and a valid license from the CA Speech-Language Pathology and Audiology Board.

MAJOR DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

To provide an individualized speech therapy program for students found to have disorders of articulation, hearing, voice, cleft palate, stuttering and language; to test and screen all students new to special education at a school based on testing such as SST; and perform related duties.

SALARY

Placement on the salary schedule commensurate with training and experience. Eligible to participate in district health, dental, and vision insurance benefits.