

New Student Registration

School Year 2010-2011

Message to Parents of Incoming Students in Grades K-12

This message is for parents of new, incoming students who will be attending the Santa Barbara School Districts in 2010-2011. Welcome to our districts! As your partner in education, we look forward to working with you in supporting your child's academic needs.

We encourage you to enroll your child during the January 4-March 31, 2010 early registration period. In doing so, you will begin your family's transition into your child's new educational environment and also help your child's school plan for staffing and program needs.

Early registration begins January 4, 2010.

Documents Required for Enrollment

- Birth certificate or passport
- Immunization record
- Verification of residence (2): current utility bill and current property tax payment receipt or grant deed or rent payment receipts or lease or rental contract or notarized statement from landlord.
- Caregiver affidavit, if student will live with someone other than parent.
- Grade report/transcript for junior high or high school students is highly recommended.
